

California Avocado Society, Inc.

104th Annual Meeting Friday, October 4th 2019

Field Tour, President's BBQ then Short General Meeting.

Topics on the Tour

Mature high-density plantings and pruning - what happens over time!
A test planting of three scions on nine different rootstocks.
How to recover from fire damage.
Commercial avocado propagation with grafting demonstration.

Location

Hansen Agricultural Research & Extension Center, 287 South Briggs Rd., Santa Paula.

Registration starts at

8:00-8:45 AM

Field Tour Locations and Maps distributed on-site

Parking available at Hansen Agricultural Research & Extension Center - Carpooling is encouraged.

BBQ Lunch at Hansen Agricultural Research & Extension Center

1:00 PM

Following Lunch

Short meeting, a guest speaker, and CAS Annual Awards

Guest Speaker

Ed Williams - Ventura County Agricultural Commissioner

Talk about the future of glyphosate, conflicts between hemp production and avocado farms, and other vital issues for avocado growers.

Make it an Avocado week and plan on attending the famous Carpinteria Avocado Festival
Avocado Festival October 4-6, 2019

Friday Field Tour, BBQ, and Meeting October 4, 2019

Total # of Persons

CAS Members _____ @ $35 Per Person Pre-Registration*

Non-Members _____ @ $50 Per Person*

Total Amount $ _____ (Please make check payable to CAS)

*For Credit Card Payment please register online

Visit: www.californiaavocadosociety.org and look under Programs > Annual Meeting.

At door registration: Members $40 and Non-Members $50

For any questions please e-mail us: admin@californiaavocadosociety.org